

IN THE US DISTRICT COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF OREGON

Benjamin Jay Barber

Case No. 3:22-CV-00134-MO

V.

Unitus Community Credit Union.

Renewed Motion for In Forma Pauperis
Filed under penalty of perjury.

The Plaintiff includes his financial statements regarding his income. Plaintiff receives between $250-300 a month of income, depending on the price of the Ethereum cryptocurrency. With Regards to the "class action settlement check", plaintiff was a member of the class for the litigation Great Northern Resources, Inc. v Coba 3:20-cv-01866-IM, and was sent a check for $1000. However I cannot use those proceeds, because I do not have a bank account, and the defendant refuses to open me a bank account, spuriously claiming that they cannot verify my identity, despite myself being a previous customer of theirs, and providing 5 forms of ID.

With regards to questions of why I do not make more income. I was previously employed as a software engineer before my conviction. However now I live with my mother and step father with intellectual disabilities, and who rely on a walker, in addition to the herding dog they shouldn't have bought because of its needs. Moreover I have been shot in the eye with a gun and have Crohn's disease, and the sorts of work that I am well suited for, are limited to the computer field.

However because the State of Oregon has incarcerated me for 5 years for publishing pornography which was originally made by myself and my ex wife to make money, which was admitted by my ex wife during the trial itself, I am having a difficult time returning to my chosen field of employment. So instead I have been studying the field of "Machine Learning", and additional mathematics, and building open source software, to demonstrate I can be employed.

/s/ Benjamin Barber
